Re: Trademark Infringement and Unfair Competition — 'NOVACORE' Mark

Dear Ms. Torres,

This letter constitutes a formal demand that you and/or your organization immediately cease and desist all unlawful activity relating to the federally registered trademark 'NOVACORE' (U.S. Reg. No. 6,891,204), owned by our client, Stellarion Systems Corp., covering cloud-computing software and related services in International Class 42. This letter is sent on behalf of our client, the party whose rights have been violated, and is intended to put you on formal notice of these violations.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Your company has launched a product branded 'NovaCORE Suite' in January 2026 for cloud infrastructure management. This mark is confusingly similar to our client's registered mark in both appearance and phonetic impression, and is being used in an identical industry vertical. Your marketing materials, trade-show banners at AWS re:Invent 2025, and the domain novacore-suite.io all exacerbate the likelihood of consumer confusion.

LEGAL BASIS

The conduct described above constitutes a violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114 and 1125(a) (Lanham Act). These laws provide for significant civil remedies, including injunctive relief, monetary damages, and recovery of attorneys' fees and costs.

DEMANDS

In light of the foregoing, we hereby demand that you take the following actions on or before March 30, 2026:

1. Cease all use of the name 'NovaCORE Suite' or any confusingly similar variant in connection with software, cloud services, or related goods and services.

2. Remove the mark from all websites, product documentation, marketing collateral, app stores, and social-media profiles within 15 business days.
3. Transfer the domain name novacore-suite.io to our client or disable and permanently retire it.
4. Provide written confirmation that all inventory bearing the infringing mark has been destroyed or re-branded.
5. Agree not to adopt any mark confusingly similar to NOVACORE in the future.

CONSEQUENCES OF NON-COMPLIANCE

Failure to comply will compel our client to seek injunctive relief, treble damages, and recovery of attorneys' fees in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California. Our client reserves all rights and remedies available at law and in equity.

Nothing in this letter shall be construed as a waiver of any rights or remedies available under applicable law, all of which are expressly reserved. This letter is written without prejudice to any and all rights, remedies, and claims, whether known or unknown, that may exist now or in the future.

Please direct your written response to the undersigned at the address above no later than March 30, 2026. Sincerely govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Marks, Esq.
