Re: Copyright Infringement — Unauthorized Use of Musical Compositions

Dear Mr. Lawson,

This letter constitutes a formal demand that you and/or your organization immediately cease and desist all unlawful activity relating to three original musical compositions: 'Midnight in Memphis' (Copyright Reg. No. PA-2024-00291), 'Crossroads Waltz' (PA-2024-00445), and 'Delta Sunrise' (PA-2024-00612), all composed and owned by Carlos Rivera and administered by Rivera Music Publishing. This letter is sent on behalf of myself whose rights have been violated, and is intended to put you on formal notice of these violations.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

StreamWave Media has used these compositions as background music in 23 episodes of the podcast series 'Southern Routes' and in promotional video content distributed on YouTube, TikTok, and your corporate website, all without obtaining a synchronization license or any other authorization. The compositions were identified through audio-fingerprinting technology and confirmed by manual review. The infringing content has accumulated over 2.4 million combined views and plays since its first use in June 2025.

LEGAL BASIS

The conduct described above constitutes a violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 106, 501, and 504, and the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (17 U.S.C. § 512). These laws provide for significant civil remedies, including injunctive relief, monetary damages, and recovery of attorneys' fees and costs.

DEMANDS

In light of the foregoing, we hereby demand that you take the following actions on or before April 6, 2026:

1. Immediately remove all content containing the three compositions from every platform, including YouTube, TikTok, Apple Podcasts, Spotify, and www.streamwavemedia.com.
2. Provide a complete list of all platforms and channels where the compositions were used, including episode numbers, upload dates, and view/play counts.
3. Pay retroactive synchronization licensing fees and statutory damages totaling $78,000 ($26,000 per composition) within 30 days.
4. Enter into a proper licensing agreement if continued use is desired, on terms to be negotiated in good faith.
5. Provide written assurance that no further unauthorized use will occur.

CONSEQUENCES OF NON-COMPLIANCE

Failure to comply will result in the filing of a copyright-infringement action in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee, seeking the maximum statutory damages of $150,000 per work, permanent injunctive relief, impoundment of infringing materials, and full recovery of attorneys' fees and costs.

Nothing in this letter shall be construed as a waiver of any rights or remedies available under applicable law, all of which are expressly reserved. This letter is written without prejudice to any and all rights, remedies, and claims, whether known or unknown, that may exist now or in the future.

Please direct your written response to the undersigned at the address above no later than April 6, 2026. Sincerely govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely,

Carlos Rivera
